Just a thought...

Prayer – Just for Today Anxiety

Lord, I am anxious about my future.

But your love will support me. Do not disappoint me.

Gardening the Soul

Last year during a retreat I was giving (on the theme of hope) to a group of priests, I asked if they would spend some time looking for a symbol that meant hope to them? They came up with an extraordinary variety of symbols; symbols of light, symbols of nature, and the earth, something they themselves had created. What was interesting was that they explained why they had chosen particular things, they nearly all associated their symbol with a memory, and so their symbols about the future were symbols that carried meaning about the past. They were remembering moments of joy, and hope came back to them after long absences. Sr. Stanislaus

Saints of the Week....

Tue 3 – St. Francis Xavier – 1506-52, one of the first weven Jesuits, was sent to India by St. Ignatius. He converted many in Goa nd later in Japan. He died as he attempted to enter China. A patron of the missions.
Wed 4 – St. John Damascene – 675 – 749, was a Syrian Christian theologian. He became a priest in the monastery of St. Sabas near Jerusalem and was a leading figure in the defence of icons in the iconoclastic controversy.

Fri 6 – St. Nicholas, was a fourth-century Bishop of Myra in modern day Turkey of whom little is know. He is patron of Russian, of sailors, of pawnbrokers and of children.

Sat 7 – St. Ambrose, 340 -397, became governor of the Roman province whose seat was in Milan. In 374, the laity insisted on his becoming bishop though he was still not baptised. He defended orthodoxy in brilliant preaching and through his writing. Patron of Milan, bee-keepers, and domestic animals.

Questions People Ask

Q. What is the meaning of the Advent

Wreath which has become so popular in recent years?

A – The wreath is circular to express the circle of life, beginning with God as creator and ending with God as our final destiny. The circle also represents Christ who came in the past, comes every day through grace and will come again in final glory. Evergreen leaves show the unfading love of God and our constant hope. The four outer candles are for the weeks of preparation before lighting the white candle at the centre for the birth of the Saviour.

It's good to laugh...

A man is driving down a motorway at 55km per hour. He looks out the window a sees a chicken running alongside his car. He speeds up to 65 and the chicken is keeping pace with him. He notices that the chicken appears to have multiple legs but before his can confirm it, the chicken takes a hard left down a dirt road. Intrigued, he turns around and goes down the dirt road and finds a chicken farm. He looks on in amazement as all the chickens are zooming around the compound. He sees the chicken standing still and sure enough it has three legs. Stunned, he gets out of the car and sees a man throwing feed for the chickens. He calls out to the farmer who comes over to the fence. The man asks "What's with all the three legged chickens?" The farmer replies: "Oh yeah, well my son, my wife and I like to eat chicken, especially the leg, do bred these to have three legs. One for my wife, one for my son and one for me." The man, still amazed asks: "Well, how do they taste?" The farmer replies sadly: "I don't know. I haven't caught one yet." Thanks Tony

The Quotable Spirit – Angels.

I beheld a Virgin of extreme beauty wrapped in a white mangle and delicate tunic... with her beautiful golden hair falling loosely down her shoulders....

She stood with uplifted hands, her eyes fixed on heaven, rapt, as it were, in an ecstasy of contemplation, in a rapture of divine sweetness/ And while she stood in prayer, I beheld her child move in her womb and ... she brought forth her son with Whom such ineffable light and splendour radiated that the sun could not be compared to it.... And then I heard the wonderful singing of many angels. Book of Questions.

Quote for the Week (174)

Life is action and passion, therefore it is required of a man that he should share the assion and action of his time at peril of being judged not to have lived.

Quip for the Week

A plain fact is that human beings are happy when they are striving for something worthwhile.

...thought for the week

A problem is a chance for you to do your best.

First Sunday of Advent

A Thought for Advent

As this is the time of year when our Sundays are busiest, we should ask ourselves – How We Spend Sunday's?

Do we give God enough time on Sunday?

Some people may legitimately protest:

"But I'm working three jobs to feed my family!

Where am I supposed to fit the Sabbath?" For those who are this tightly scheduled, maybe it becomes an hour before the kids wake up or after they go to bed. Maybe it's an hour in the evening without the television or computer. In such times we remember we are God's beloved and no matter what life throws at us, nothing else is as fundamentally important.

Modelling a sense of Sabbath is especially important for parents. What do we want our children to remember? The mornings when the family snuggled in pyjamas, built blanket caves, held tickling contests and cooked something delicious? Or the fact that Mom and Dad dourly trooped off to work like robots?
