Just a thought...

Prayer - Just for Today

Prayer

As I live each day, may I do my part to make one difference - to touch one heart.
And through each day may it be my goal - to encourage one mind and inspire one soul.

Gardening the Soul

Acknowledging our own weakness is an essential quality for those of us who work to provide a service to people who have been hurt and rejected. In situations where we are unable to be welcoming because we are just too tired or too busy, it is better that we acknowledge and accept that. People who have been repeatedly rejected see very clearly if there is a gap between what we say and what we do, between our ideals and our reality, and if they sense our hypocrisy, they will feel rejected and devalued once again. Sr. Stan

It takes two to speak the truth, one to speak and another to hear.

Quote for the Week

Affect not as some do that bookish ambition to be stored with books and have well-furnished libraries, yet keep their heads empty of knowledge; to desire to have many books; and never to use them, is like a child that will have a candle burning by him all the while, while he is sleeping.
(H Peacaham)

The Quotable Spirit - Immortality

I saw eternity the other night,
Like a great ring of pure and endless light,
All calm, as it was bright;
And round beneath it, Time in hours, days, years.
Driven by the spheres
Like a vast shadow mov'd; in which the world and all her train were hurl'd.

Henry Vaughan (1622-1695)

Quip for the Week

Some people's lives remind us of the French bread- one long loaf!

It's good to laugh.....

A minister decided to do something a little different on Sunday morning. He said "today congregation, I am going to say a single word and you are going to help me preach.

Whatever word I say, I want you to sing whatever hymn that comes to your mind. The Pastor yells out 'Cross!' Immediately the congregation started singing in unison, 'The Old Rugged Cross'. The Pastor hollered out 'Grace!' The congregation began to sing 'Amazing Grace.' The Pastor said 'Power!' The congregation sang, 'There is Power in the Blood.' Then the Pastor said 'Sex!' The congregation fell in total silence. Everyone was in shock. They all nervously began to look around at each other, afraid to say anything, in case they might say the wrong thing. Then all of a sudden, way from the back of the church, a little old lady of seventy eight years of age and a great grandmother, stood up and began to sing... 'Precious Memories'.

Questions People Ask!

Q. The words at the consecration of the wine at Mass are changed from 'shed for you and for all men' to 'poured out for you and for many'. Why the change from 'all' to 'many'? Does this mean that others are excluded?

A. The word 'many' is not meant to exclude anybody. There are several places in the New Testament telling us that Jesus died for the salvation of all people. However, the accounts of the Last Supper speak of the precious blood shed for many. The text of the Mass follows the words of the Last Supper as closely as possible and that is the reason for saying 'many' rather than 'all'.

Saints of the week...

Mon 20 - St. Fabian had been Pope for fourteen years when martyred under Decius in the year 250.

St. Sebastian may have been a soldier and was martyred in the persecution of Diocletian. He sustained many others in their trials.

Tues 21 - St. Agnes, wealthy and beautiful, was martyred for her virginity in the last persecutions in Rome, in the early fourth century.

Wed 22 - St. Vincent, deacon of the church of Saragossa, Spain, martyred in 304 in Valencia after prolonged torture.

Fri. 24 - St. Francis de Sales, 1567 - 1622, bishop of Geneva, founder of the Visitation Sisters. He worked with gentleness and love to rebuild the Catholic faith after the Reformation.

Sat. 25 - St. Paul preached the power of God at work in the lives of each one of us.

...thought for the week

It is not because things are difficult that we do not dare; it is because we do not dare that they are difficult

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Maternal Face of God

Historically speaking, in our culture the role of men has been to create, to make new things, to fix broken things, and to defend us from things which could hurt us. All of these are wonderful and necessary roles for the preservation of the human race.

However, most children saw their mother in a different way. She was not a creator, a fixer, or a defender, but rather a transformer. Once a woman has carried her baby inside of her body for nine months and brought it forth, through the pain of childbirth, into the world, she knows the mystery of transformation at a cellular level. She knows it intuitively, yet she may not verbalize it. She just holds it at a deeper level of consciousness. She knows something about mystery, about miracles, and about transformation that men will never know (which is why males had to be initiated!). Women who are not mothers often learn it by simply being in the "community of women."
